Amendment 94

Sylvia-Yvonne Kaufmann, Jo Leinen

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 24 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

24 a. Stresses that the incorporation of the Charter into primary EU law, while not extending the Union's competences and respecting the principle of subsidiarity as defined in its Article 51, creates new responsibilities for the decision-making and implementing institutions, as well as for Member States when implementing EU legislation at national level, and that the Charter's provisions have thus become directly enforceable by European and national courts;

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 25

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

25. Encourages the EU institutions and the Member States to move toward a more flexible and unconstrained interpretation of Article 51 of the Charter, allowing for a straightforward application of the Charter as a whole, and to evaluate the possibility of repealing the article in the event of a possible future revision of the Treaties;

Sylvia-Yvonne Kaufmann, Jo Leinen

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 25 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

25 a. Encourages the Member States to review their procedural rules on legal scrutiny and impact assessments of bills from the perspective of the Charter of Fundamental Rights; such procedures should explicitly refer to the Charter, just like they do to national human rights instruments, to minimise the risk that the Charter is overlooked;
